

Sample International Student Recommendation Form

Academy High requires that international applicants provide contact information for two adults who are willing to complete a survey of a student's strengths and challenges in a learning context; at least one recommendation should come from a teacher who has taught the student in the last year, and at least one should come from a teacher who is familiar with the student's English proficiency (recommenders cannot be related to the applicant).

Academy High reaches out directly to connect recommenders with an online form that includes the following information.
